CREAGHE. On March 22, 1892. a short note of introduction. When this simple and insignificant message was delivered to Mr. Quincy it had assumed the formal proportions of an order from the President and the appointment was made out accordingly. The mistake was not discovered until the President read of the appointment in the papers and on making inquiry was surprised to learn that it was based on a mythical order, supposed to have been made by him. The appointment was thereupen revoked. Mr. Curry is, therefore, the innocent victim of a mistake in the delivery of a purely perfunctory message. He purpose of getting authority to swear the policemen on duty within the District line as bailiffs. He explained that the line which separates the District of Columbia from Maryland ran through Takoma and persons committing depredations in the District could cross the line and be free from arrest from the policemen. What was desired was to give the policemen the power of bailiffs and allow them to arrest any one breaking the law in the town. The Commissioners sent the matter to the chief of police for his recommendation. PROBEY.
